

Garden of Life

To honor and celebrate the lives lost to suicide

In Spring of 2016, the Howard County Conservancy's Honor Garden will be home to the Garden of Life, a memorial garden to honor and to celebrate the lives of our loved ones who have died by suicide and to raise awareness about suicide. The Howard County Conservancy is located on a 300-year-old, 232 acre farm at 10520 Old Frederick Road, Woodstock, Maryland. The garden will include plants that bloom throughout the seasons, a tree, a walkway, and a bench. The Howard County Conservancy provides the design, building, and maintenance of the garden. The garden will be funded by donations and all donations are 100% tax deductible. The Katrina Tagget Memorial Foundation is a major sponsor of the garden.

All donations are appreciated and go towards the cost of the garden. Donations can be made online or by check. Online donations can be made at KatrinaTagget.org, and add Garden of Life in the comments. Checks made payable to Katrina Tagget Memorial Foundation can be sent to Sara Tagget, 10351 Waverly Woods Drive, Ellicott City, MD 21042. If you would like to participate in the Garden of Life by honoring a loved one who has died by suicide and would like their name on a plaque, we are requesting a minimum donation of $250 and the completed form below (send to Sara Tagget either by mail or email. Please direct any questions to Sara Tagget at stagget@verizon.net or Jill Coutts at coutts.jill@gmail.com).
